LONDON:
PRINTED BY WILLIAM CLOWES AND SONS, LIMITED,
STAMFORD STREET AND CHARING CROSS.

THIS Index has been compiled, under my sanction, by Mr. G. K. Fortescue, Assistant of the First Class, and Superintendent of the Reading-Room.

It is mainly designed to assist those who use the Reading-Room of the British Museum; but it is hoped that it will, in some measure, fulfil a wider purpose.

This useful work forms a nearer approximation to a general index of current literature than has yet been attempted.

It remains for me to add that it has been compiled by Mr. Fortescue solely, and for the most part when away from the Museum, during non-official hours.

(Signed) GEORGE BULLEN.

May, 1886.

PREFACE.

THIS work consists partly of a Subject Index and partly of a Class Catalogue of Parts I. to LXV. of the "Accessions, Sections A and B," of the Catalogue of Printed Books.

These sections include all the new books, that is to say, books acquired within five years of the date of their publication, except those in the Slavonic, Hungarian and Oriental languages. Part I. was issued in January 1880, the date when the system of printing the Catalogue was introduced; Part LXV. in August 1885; so that in this Index will be found references to the whole of the current literature of the years 1880–1884, and a large proportion of that of 1879 and 1885.

The Index is, of course, designed to supplement, not in any way to supersede, the General Catalogue; consequently no personal names will be found among the headings, nor has the heading Bible, which would have been one of the largest and most important entries in the work, been reproduced from the General Catalogue. Novels, Tales, Plays and Poems have also been omitted.

A few words of explanation are necessary as to the general system of arrangement which has been followed throughout the work. The headings and subheadings are in strictly alphabetical order; precedence being given under each to the larger or more important works, and all books being as far as possible grouped together according to their language in the following order:—English, French, German, Italian, Dutch, Danish, Swedish, Spanish and Portuguese. There are, however, some deviations from this system of arrangement: for example, in the history of each country the titles follow each other in chronological sequence, irrespective of language.

The Compiler's gratitude is due to many of his colleagues who have given him advice and assistance; he desires particularly to thank Mr. J. P. Anderson, for his valuable aid; Mr. R. N. Bain, for his help in the Dutch and Scandinavian portions of the Index; and Mr. E. J. Feild, for his assistance in revising the proofs.
